The Mundaca Law Firm Welcomes Senior Associate Attorney Jessica Mendoza to the Legal Team

Washington, DC – November 28, 2025 – The Mundaca Law Firm is proud to announce the addition of Jessica Mendoza, Senior Associate Attorney, to its rapidly growing legal team. With exceptional expertise in employment law and workplace justice, Jessica brings an outstanding record of successful litigation and unwavering commitment to fairness and accountability in the workplace. In addition, due to her extensive federal employment experience, the firm strengthens its ability to support both private and federal sector clients.

Jessica has litigated a wide spectrum of employment law matters, including cases involving discrimination, harassment, hostile work environment, retaliation, non-selection, reasonable accommodations, and other workplace violations. Her dual-representation background—advocating both for employees and employers—equips her with a balanced and strategic understanding of complex employment disputes.

Before joining The Mundaca Law Firm, Jessica served as a litigation attorney with the Office of the General Counsel at the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA), where she defended Title VII cases before the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC). In that role, she provided legal counsel to USDA agencies and coordinated litigation matters with the U.S. Department of Justice involving federal district courts.

Jessica’s distinguished government experience also includes completion of the prestigious Honors Program with the National Labor Relations Board (NLRB). As an Honors Attorney and later a trial attorney with the Contempt, Compliance, and Special Litigation Branch, she managed special litigation matters, including corporate and bankruptcy-related disputes, and conducted civil contempt proceedings to enforce compliance with Board orders. She has also demonstrated excellence in appellate oral advocacy, successfully representing the NLRB before the U.S. Court of Appeals for the D.C. Circuit.

Jessica’s dedication to workplace justice emerged early in her legal career. While in law school, she served as a Peggy Browning Fellow with the United Food & Commercial Workers International Union and excelled in the ABA Labor and Employment Law Trial Advocacy Competition. Her judicial internship at the Appellate Court of Maryland further strengthened her legal research and analytical skills.

“Jessica brings deep expertise in employment law and an impressive history of litigation success at the federal level,” said Francisco Mundaca, Managing Partner of The Mundaca Law Firm. “Her passion for protecting workers, combined with her high-level government experience, aligns perfectly with our commitment to advocacy, excellence, and results.”

Jessica is committed to ensuring that her clients receive clear, informed, and strategic legal guidance during some of the most challenging moments in their professional lives. She is known for cultivating a supportive environment for her clients while zealously defending their rights and interests.

A native Spanish speaker, Jessica was born in Peru and raised in Argentina before moving to the United States as a teen. Outside of her legal practice, she enjoys horse riding, dancing, and traveling.
